

the week-end to work on these bills on your desk you will not be able to vote final reading on budget bills on next Wednesday like you should.

SPEAKER: This time the Chair would like to introduce some guests under the south balcony. Senator Thomas Kennedy's daughter from Pierce, Nebraska Mrs. Raymond Anderson and her sons Randy, Eric and her daughter Jill. Will you please stand and be recognized. I would also like to introduce under the North Balcony representative Mike Parker who is from the Washington State Legislature. He is from Tokoma and he is ViceChairman of the Social and Health Services Committee and if some of you have time I hope that you will go over and visit with him. He is here to study a unicameral legislature and I would have to presume that thus far he has not been too impressed. Senator Parker. Senator Schmit.

SENATOR SCHMIT: Mr. President, members of the legislature, first I want to say that I would like to contribute to my share to the delay that this body has encouraged throughout the 52-53 days that we have been here and I see Senator Syas nodding but I want to say that at this time I think that it is time for us to buckle down and do what Senator Cavanaugh has suggested or Senator Carpenter has suggested and move these bills off Select File. Now we all have our petty gripes and I have mine. But there are a lot of those underlined bills on General File that we will never get too and they are might important to someone or they would not have been underlined. So, lets get on with Select File and then lets get back to General File and go ahead and act like a responsible people that we are and do business for the rest of the day. I therefore move that we go to Select File.

SPEAKER: Senator Stahmer.

SENATOR STAHMER: I'm going to rise and oppose the motion again. I question whether we don't already have a constitutional cloud on advancing 10 bills or 8 bills in one swoop without proper reading of them individually, now we are going to do the same thing on Select File. You are going to have more problems than you ever dreamed of if we get these bills with the constitutional cloud on them. I don't think that this body is in anymood to do anything but advance 10 bills at a swoop and then have to fool around with the votes to bring them back off E & R and I think that is exactly what is planned and I think that it is exactly what this body doesn't need. Lets get ourselves in a real constitutional jam once then we can all have a....

CLERK: Motion on the Desk Mr. President.

SPEAKER: Read the motion.

CLERK: Read adjournment notice, by Senator Carpenter.

SPERAKER: Senator Carpenter has moved that we adjourn and that is not debatable. Are you ready for the question? Adjourn to when Senator? We have already made the decision that it is Monday Senator. Senator Chambers. That question has already been decided.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I want to ask a question.
